

Seeking Adult Actor with Green Ambition

Zero Waste Marin is seeking an adult actor for two educational videos about waste and recycling in Marin County. Applicant must be available for two full days of shooting plus (Zoom) rehearsal time and wardrobe fitting. Actor must be able to travel to Novato for one day and San Rafael for the other. Video will be filmed (mostly) outside. Please provide availability for week of March 29th and April 5th including weekends.

Prior acting experience required. Must be willing to wear costume, use props and deliver lines using a range of emotions. Interest in recycling/environment a plus.

Apply by March 15, 2021 with an email to kas@gigantic-idea.com and include:

- Name
- Confirm ability to secure transportation to two Marin locations
- Examples of prior acting experience
- A video of yourself (cell phone is fine) recycling a bottle with:
 - Line 1, glum and/or jaded: “Nobody cares anymore about recycling.”
 - Line 2, surprised (speaking to 10-year-old kid): “Wait, you mean you DO care if this glass bottle gets recycled over and over, forever?”

Actor will be compensated $100/hour (estimated hours for project 18-22 hours).

COVID-19 protocols (safe distancing and masks) will be utilized during the shoot, which will take place outdoors.

Zero Waste Marin is the formal name for the Marin Hazardous and Solid Waste Joint Powers Authority (JPA), which is comprised of representatives from all over Marin County. Our mission is to help residents and businesses meet the county’s Zero Waste goal by 2025 by reducing and recycling their solid waste and safely disposing of hazardous materials
